Comments I agree the council have to recover their costs but my main concern is How much this will cost small business.
Previous Fees had a cap on them, this new system has no limit.
Has the council done a draft application and calculated the cost.
How long does the council anticipate an application to be processed.
It is hard enough for small business, the Council need to help us -- not hinder.
We look forward to see what happens now.
Thank You.
Nicki
