

Waitaki District Council

Application for Re-registration under Food Act 2014

- IMPORTANT: The Food Act states that food business can only renew their registration while it is current. If the registration is allowed to expire the food business must start the process of registration again. The food business is treated as a new business which may affect which risk based measure can be used and has implications for the verification cycle.
- This form is to re-register a business that is operating under a template Food Control Plan (tFCP) or a National Programme (NP) Level 1, 2 or 3.
- If you are re-applying for a National Programme registration you will need to attach a letter of confirmation from your verifier. A list of recognised verification (or audit) agencies can be found on the MPI website www.mpi.govt.nz, under 'registers and lists'.
